

Beatrice Johnston Bio

Beatrice Johnston is a Raw Food Mentor and created Raw Pathways to serve people looking to add more raw foods to their daily routine, rather their meat eaters, vegetarians or vegans. With over 20 years of personal experience eating a vegetarian-to-vegan-to-raw diet, Beatrice has been mentoring people to improved health and wellness for over 10 years.

As a model she has appeared in a number of ads including Revlon, Avon, Kmart and Mademoiselle and Cosmopolitan. Currently she can be seen in Target in-store displays for Iman Cosmetics and will be profiled in the November Issue of The Oprah Magazine. She credits her good skin to eating a high raw vegan diet.

Though she enjoys modeling, her true passion lies in nutrition awareness. She has used nutrition to eliminate hypoglycemia, asthma, anemia, moodiness and acne and aims to teach those within her community to do the same.

Beatrice's hands-on knowledge and experience of all issues relating to food transition, as well as her approachable, positive and inspiring personality make her a magnetic and sought-after mentor in New York's tri-state area. With her training as a host, news anchor and interviewer she is an ideal choice to host health segments, man on the street interviews and public speaking.
